ANNEX 4*COVERAGE INFORMATION (CHAPTER 54)

On 1 January 2016 the deposit protection limit is changing from £85,000 to £[xx,000].

If your bank, building society or credit union fails, the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) protects your eligible deposits up to the deposit protection limit (currently £85,000 for most depositors).<sup>1</sup>

If you have eligible deposits of more than £[xx,000], you are unlikely to be fully protected after 1 January 2016 so you may need to take action if you wish to remain fully covered by the FSCS.

From 1 January 2016, your eligible deposits with [insert name of firm] will be protected up to a total of £[xx,000] by the FSCS. [The limit is applied to the total of your eligible deposits held with the following: insert names of brands as appropriate].

IF YOU HAVE MORE THAN £[xx,000] WITH [insert name of the account holding bank, building society or credit union and all other trading names of the same bank, building society or credit union]:

[Insert details of firm's approach in respect of fixed term deposits. For example where firms choose to adopt measures that the PRA is consulting on in CP23/15 ahead of the PRA making final rules they should set this out here. Firms may also refer to the PRA's consultation to manage the impact on depositors with aggregate deposit balances above £[xx,000].]

PLEASE CONTACT (insert firm contact details) FOR FURTHER INFORMATION ON KEEPING YOUR MONEY PROTECTED.

If you have total eligible deposits of less than £[xx,000] with [insert firm name], then you will not be affected by the limit change.

Further information regarding the protection provided by FSCS is set out below.

General limit of protection

Your eligible deposits held at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, you hold eligible deposits in a savings account with £70,000 and a current account with £20,000, you will only be repaid £[xx,000] (or £85,000 for most depositors until 31 December 2015).

From 3 July 2015 until 31 December 2015:

The FSCS protects most depositors, including individuals and small companies, up to £85,000 until 31 December 2015.

Eligible deposits of large companies<sup>2</sup> and small local authorities<sup>3</sup> are eligible for FSCS protection from 3 July 2015 onwards. The £[xx,000] deposit protection limit will apply from 3 July 2015 since these deposits have not previously been protected.

<sup>2</sup> Large company means a body corporate which does not qualify as a small company under section 382 of the Companies Act 2006

<sup>3</sup> Small local authority means a local authority with an annual budget of up to EUR 500,000

From 1 January 2016:

From 1 January 2016, the FSCS will protect most eligible deposits up to a total of £[xx,000]. Any deposits you hold above the limit are unlikely to be covered.

Depositors with aggregate deposit balances over £[xx,000]

Further information will be provided to depositors on how these changes will affect depositors with aggregate balances over £[xx,000]. Please contact ([insert firm details]) or the FSCS (details below) for further information.

Temporary high balances

In some cases, an eligible deposit which is categorised as “a “temporary high balance” (for example, as a result of a house sale, inheritance, or insurance payment) may be protected to a higher limit for six months after the amount has been credited to your account or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. This applies from 3 July 2015. See the FSCS website for full details.

Exclusions from protection

A deposit is excluded from protection if:

- (1) The holder and any beneficial owner of the deposit have never been identified in accordance with money laundering requirements. For further information, contact your bank, bank building society or credit union.
- (2) The deposit arises out of transactions in connection with which there has been a criminal conviction for money laundering.

  - credit institution
  - financial institution
  - investment firm
  - insurance undertaking
